Our History

PATRICK COUNTY, VIRGINIA

From the rugged Pinnacles of Dan, where vestiges of the old Appalachian Trail remain, to the pampered luxury of the five-star resort at Primland, living is easy in Patrick County, Virginia.

Wander along the Blue Ridge Parkway, and explore the county's mountain villages and forgotten paths. Test your whitewater rafting skills during the Kibler Valley River Run, or travel through Rock Castle Gorge among the remains of a lost community.

Stop for a picnic at the covered bridge or along the Blue Ridge Parkway, tap your toes to traditional mountain music along the Crooked Road Music Trail, tour the county's unique wineries — Stanburn and Villa Appalaccia. You can even satisfy your sweet tooth with a stop at Nancy's Candy Company, where great-tasting fudge, chocolates, and truffles are made right there at the shop.

Enjoy a sun-drenched round at the Gordon Trent Golf Course, mosey around Fairy Stone State Park, or take in one of the county's annual festivals, such as the Virginia Peach Festival, FloydFest, the Beach Music Festival, or Front Porch Fest. Fast times await at the Wood Brothers Racing Museum, and historical moments come alive at Reynolds Homestead and at Laurel Hill, the birthplace of General J.E.B. Stuart.

Whatever your passion, Patrick County's nearly 500 square miles encompassing the rolling Piedmont and Blue Ridge Highlands promise an outdoor adventure.
