VIRGINIA IS FOR LOVERS

UNPLUG & UNWIND

Welcome to Patrick County.

From the rugged Pinnacles of Dan, where vestiges of the old Appalachian Trail remain, to the pampered luxury of the five-star resort at Primland, living is easy in Patrick County, Virginia. Wander along the Blue Ridge Parkway, and explore the county's mountain villages and forgotten paths.

Test your whitewater rafting skills during the Kibler Valley River Run, or hike through Rock Castle Gorge among the remains of a lost community. Stop for a picnic at Jack's Creek Covered Bridge or along the Blue Ridge Parkway. Tap your toes to traditional mountain music along the Crooked Road Music Trail.

Taste the area's unique wines, indulge in freshly made fudge or pull up a chair to a farm-to-table meal. Enjoy a sun-drenched round of golf, mosey around Fairy Stone State Park, or take in one of the county's award-winning annual festivals. Step back in time at one of our many historic sites, museums, or historical events.

Connect with your roots at a pick-your-own orchard. Explore the backroads and find a new view around every curve. Whatever your passion, Patrick County's nearly 500 square miles encompassing the rolling Piedmont and Blue Ridge Highlands promise an outdoor adventure.

Stay your way.

When it comes to lodging, Patrick County has a place that fits most any style. From Primland, an award-winning luxury resort in the mountains with countless amenities and experiences both outdoors and in, to family-friendly campgrounds, cabins, and yurts at Fairy Stone State Park, to chic mountain cabins with stunning views and adorable tiny homes where big memories are made, there's a perfect place for you and your loved ones to unwind and relax after a day filled with adventure.

There is so much to discover here.

Adventure is around every curve in Patrick County. Get on the water at one of our many rivers or lakes. Hike a mountain path or bike a cross-country trail.
